*If your mini gym child still requires parental assistance, we ask that you consider whether this event is beneficial to your child at this time. If you do choose to participate, please tell our coaches what your child requires so we can be accommodating to their needs.

Showtime Showdown is an element of our gymnastics program and considered to be an important part of the curriculum. If you cannot/would not like to participate, we need notice before April 12th that you wish to opt out of this event. On the 15th, a $5 Showtime fee will be charged to the card on file if you have not opted out.

The $5 registration charge per gymnast is necessary to cover the expenses of this event.
